2. In the Tournament may participate singers – tenors from all over the world, born after 1st of September 1973.
3. The Director of the Tournament is the Director of The Castle Opera in Szczecin, Jacek Jekiel. The Director of the Tournament will decide about any and all organizational matters related to the execution of the Tournament. Decisions of the Director of the Tournament are final and indisputable.

§ 2

APPLICATION AND QUALIFICATION FOR THE TOURNAMENT

1. Application for the Tournament shall be submitted on the application form until 23th of June 2023 and sent by e-mail to: kladczuk@opera.szczecin.pl. The date of application receipt by The Castle Opera in Szczecin is decisive for the admission of the application. The application form is enclosed below as Annex no 1 to the Rules of the Tournament.
2. The application shall present the suggested repertoire, that is, three opera arias and three Italian or Neapolitan songs (or operetta arias), and specify the key of chosen works. In the course of the Tournament the Participant will be asked to perform one item of each category. The Director of the Tournament selects the performed work out of submitted suggestions. Additionally, after the contest performances, all the participants will jointly sing a Neapolitan song – O sole mio.
3. The following elements should be submitted with the application form:
 - a) A biography note (the course of the musical education, artistic achievements, the repertoire) – in Polish or English;
 - b) 2 current photographs (one portrait and one from the spectacle or concert) in an electronic version (a photograph of high resolution appropriate for printing – min. 300 dpi) to be used in press publications, in the Tournament program and on the website of The Castle Opera;
 - c) Video recordings (links to the Internet sites) presenting own performances given not earlier than within the last 3 years.

4. The Director of the Tournament will choose 8 participants out of all people applying for the Tournament on the basis of received recordings of applicants' artistic achievements. The participants will be informed about the qualification outcome by e-mail until 30th of June 2023. The list of participants will be presented on www.opera.szczecin.pl.
5. The Organizer will conclude contracts for specific tasks with eight qualified candidates for the Tournament. The contracts will concern the applicants' preparation and artistic performance of works selected by the Director of the Tournament in compliance with the provisions of item 2 of the present paragraph, as well as the transfer of rights to the Organizer with regard to artistic performance within the exploitation fields specified in these contracts, and approval to use participants' image by the Organizer for the needs of organization and execution of the Tournament. The remuneration for performance, transfer of performance-related rights and approval to use the image shall amount to PLN 4.000,00 (in words: four thousand PLN) gross or equivalent in EUR according to the average exchange rate of the National Bank of Poland of 1st of September 2022.
